10000 BCE

Agricultural Revolution begins, marking the transition from hunter-gatherer societies to settled farming communities.

Founding of Rome, one of the greatest ancient civilizations, laying the foundation for Western culture.

753 BCE

476 BCE

Fall of the Western Roman Empire, marking the end of the Classical Age and the beginning of the Middle Ages in Europe.

Magna Carta is signed, establishing the principles of limited government and the rule of law, influencing democratic governance worldwide.

1215

1492

Christopher Columbus reaches the Americas, leading to the age of European exploration and colonization.

American Declaration of Independence is signed, sparking the American Revolutionary War and the birth of the United States.

1776

1789

French Revolution begins, overthrowing the monarchy and leading to profound social and political changes in Europe.

World War I, a global conflict with unprecedented scale and devastation, reshaping the geopolitical landscape and leading to the rise of new nations.

1914

1945

Atomic bombs are dropped on Hiroshima and Nagasaki, marking the beginning of the nuclear age and reshaping international relations.

Fall of the Berlin Wall and the collapse of Soviet communism, marking the end of the Cold War era and the beginning of a new geopolitical landscape.

1989